

Vocare

Vocare comes from the Latin word "to call". Vocare seeks to help individuals listen for God's unique call in their life. It gives participants a method to develop their spirituality and to share their faith with others.

This movement is very similar in mission and design to Cursillo, Happenings, and New Beginnings. But where Cursillo is primarily for those aged 30 and over and Happenings and New Beginnings for young people who are still in Jr. High or High School, Vocare is open to those between the ages of 19 and 30.

Vocare of Northern California, based in Sacramento and Vocare of California based in San Francisco are actively helping the Diocese of El Camino get a chapter off the ground for our young adults. San Francisco had their first weekend in January 2003. It was a great success.

The first Vocare weekend for El Camino Real is MAY 2 -4, 2003. The weekend begins on Friday night and ends on Sunday afternoon. It will be held at St. Phillip's church in Scotts Valley.

The team still needs angels! You can help by offering to participate in the setup on Friday afternoon, or helping to cook one of the meals during the weekend, or by being available to help clean up on Sunday afternoon. Perhaps the Cursillo community at your parish, or your fourth day group would be willing to take on one or more of these tasks. Contact Geneve Huxley at batgirlcar@yahoo.com or call her 408-524-5344 to volunteer your service to this important new ministry.

Grand Ultreya

Leadership Workshops

Presented By:

Monterey Bay Servant Community

Santa Clara Servant Community

The two servant communities are currently looking into scheduling an overnight retreat and Grand Ultreya. During a joint meeting between the two servant communities it was agreed that we would try to put together a joint retreat during the first weekend in June. We are looking into having several fantastic presenters. The cost will be very minimal but the food and fellowship will be fantastic. There is a strong possibility that SPECS will provide some worship leadership as well as a music leaders workshop during our time together.

Anyone who is interested in attending needs to RSVP via our Website: www.sccursillo.org. Or, mail a note to our PO Box with your Name, Address, and Telephone Number. We will inform everyone as more particulars become available.

Team 2003 is underway.

The core team for the 2003 weekend is almost complete. Don and Penny Carr from St. Andrews will be the rector and rectora. They have chosen Roy and Pat Morse from St. Edwards to be their assistant rector/rectora. Also, Steve and Sue Kottmeier are going to be their head cooks. They are close to picking the theme for this weekend. We know this is going to be a very special weekend for everyone. You can send Don and Penny e-mail via our Website.

Listen for the Heartbeat of God...P.S.

It was the Eds versus the Rollo Rollers in the grudge match of the decade. Early in February two teams of determined bowlers met at the Saratoga lanes to fight for the undisputed bowling crown of Cursillo. Let me tell you bowling balls were flying forwards and backwards and everywhere in between. But, alas, when the dust had settled, the Ed's had managed to pull out a two pin victory over the Rollers. The Eds insist to this day that the two ringers they had bowling for them didn't effect the outcome of the match. There has been some talk of a re-match to occur at a local miniature golf facility. We'll keep you posted sports fans!

Servant Community Board Meeting

The Board meets on the third Wednesday of every month at 7:30 pm at St. Francis Episcopal Church in San Jose. St. Francis is located at 1205 Pine Ave. San Jose. All are welcome.

Calling all Cursillistas

It's not too early to sign up to sponsor a candidate for the 2003 weekend. Just go to our website and print out the application. Mail the completed form to our PO Box 6735 San Jose, 95150-6735. Last years weekend filled up very quickly!
